MONTPELIER

Hearing Started on Foreclosure of Col-ton Co. Property.

The hearing in the matter of the petition of the Montpelier National bank to foreclose on the property of the Col-ton Manufacturing company was commenced this morning before Judge E. M. Butler, chancellor. There is now due on the property some $59,773.11. Several attorneys were present during the hearing. These included A. A. Sargent, E. H. Deavitt, F. L. Laird, E. M. Harvey, F. E. Gleason and H. C. Shurtliff, and others came in later in the day. There are two notes which were accepted as evidence. These were of F. M. Corry and W. E. Adams. E. M. Harvey objected to the introduction of the certified copy of the grand list taken in Montpelier, claiming it did not show valuation of the property other than for tax purposes.

The single men and the married men of the Red Men fraternity bowled on the Dally alleys last evening, the single men winning by a score of 1574 to 1213. Paper and White tied for high score at 277 points, while O'Sullivan and Lawless of the married men's team had 257 and 255, respectively.

F. F. Wilder of Watfield was a visitor in the city to-day.

Fred Rowell is employed as janitor of the new state building while Arthur Foley is on his vacation.

Miss Marion Meigs is employed in the bank commissioner's office while Mrs. Inez Bessett is assisting in the examination of banks.

The trains from the south on the Central Vermont railway were late on Thursday afternoon and this morning, owing to trouble on the Boston & Maine railroad, except in the case of the 9:04 train to-day, in which the trouble was due to a freight train pulling a drawbar on a car at Bethel, which delayed the train 30 minutes.

Mrs. Nelson Bailey of Wells River visited in the city Thursday.

Levi Lord of Berlin appeared in city court this morning, pleading guilty to the charge of breaking the city ordinance by leaving his automobile within 15 feet of a hydrant. It was stated that he offered the attorney $5 to settle the matter, and after Lord had paid his fine, the attorney criticized his action in so doing. Lord paid a fine of $1 and costs of $6.05.

J. J. Kennedy of Burlington was a visitor in the city yesterday.

Judge Z. S. Stanton of Roxbury and Judge Sherman H. Moulton of Burlington were in the city yesterday in connection with their court work.

Mrs. C. R. Lyons, who went to England to visit her mother four months ago, has returned home, arriving last evening. Mrs. Lyons left her mother quite a little improved in health.

William Rock of Barre was at the secretary of state's office and the state highway department to-day, relative to a recent accident that took place when his team was run into by a state truck some time ago on the Aldrich flat. He wants payment for the damage done to his wagon. The driver of the car was H. D. Staples, upon whom another complaint of an accident has been made. One of the drivers of the state trucks this morning backed into the stone shed from which stone chips were being drawn, damaging the shed quite a little. The matter was reported to the state highway commissioner's office.

Henry Robinson of Winchester, Mass., has settled his account as executor of the estate of Abraham Long, late of Montpelier. A. A. Sargent was this morning appointed guardian of Mrs. Isabella Parker of Barre, having filed his bond this morning and it being approved by the court.

Dr. M. L. Chandler this morning reported an automobile accident that took place in Barre, when his automobile hit a team. It appears that the team was standing crosswise of Berlin street and that Dr. Chandler had to go into the dooryard on the opposite side of the street, with the result that when he came back into the road his automobile hit one of the rig but did no damage.
